OVERVIEW

On October 20, 2021, we released one of three reports on single-purpose hate accounts targeting Harry and Meghan, Duke and Duchess of Sussex. The initial report outlined how fewer than one hundred single-purpose hate accounts were responsible for approximately 70 percent of the original and derivative hate-filled content targeting Harry and Meghan on Twitter.

On November 1, 2021, we released our second report to show how single-purpose hate accounts strategically targeted and interacted with specific journalists and royal commentators to amplify their conspiracy theories and increase their exposure. We concluded that nine out of the ten prominent Twitter accounts that primarily cover the royal family, in fact, had interacted with at least one of the 84 hate accounts we were monitoring. On at least one occasion, we could link a conspiracy theory shared by a single-purpose hate account to an award-winning journalist and author, who then amplified the conspiracy theory on Twitter and TV.

This third and final report will demonstrate how single-purpose hate accounts coordinate on several platforms, use Twitter to spread disinformation, circulate conspiracy theories on YouTube, and monetize their hatred. We will illustrate how single-purpose hate accounts have turned targeted harassment and coordinated hate campaigns into a lucrative hate-for-profit enterprise.

We will prove how one of the most well-known hate accounts, that uses the moniker “Yankee Wally,” helped start one of the first anti-Meghan hate groups online and is in communication with Samantha Markle, Meghan Markle’s half-sister. We will show also how Yankee Wally is buying fake Twitter accounts in bulk to continue her anti-Meghan hate campaign.

This report will explore who is behind some of the most popular hate accounts and examine how they leverage their popularity into lucrative YouTube-dependant incomes.

We will provide statistics and estimated earnings for some of these YouTube hate channels and a list of the most popular anti-Meghan YouTube hate channels.

In 2018, Yankee Wally co-founded a private MeWe group focused primarily on Harry and Meghan, Duke and Duchess of Sussex. Samantha Markle, Meghan Markle's half-sister, was also a member of the group and became friends with Yankee Wally. Members of the MeWe group would fabricate falsehoods about Harry and Meghan and strategize about how to disseminate conspiracy theories and disinformation on other social media platforms.

The group was composed predominantly of middle-aged Caucasian women located in the United Kingdom, United States, and Australia. Members of the group used derogatory terms when referring to Meghan Markle and her Black supporters. Several members of the group often created derogatory memes to share outside of the group on Twitter and Instagram. The group would be the catalyst of a coordinated and sustained smear campaign targeting Harry and Meghan, and spanning multiple social media platforms.

In 2019, Yankee Wally, Murky Meg, and According 2taz began creating low-quality YouTube videos targeting Harry and Meghan. The trio created hate-filled and mostly inaccurate videos to monetize conspiracy theories about Harry and Meghan. The three YouTube channels had a combined 70+ million views, and an estimated $494,730 in total YouTube earnings.

The trio also coordinated their efforts on Twitter, cultivating a following by disseminating conspiracy theories and disinformation about Harry and Meghan that were concocted in the MeWe group. Their efforts allowed them to interact with journalists and royal experts, who then, in some circumstances, amplified the falsehoods. The women leveraged their Twitter popularity to funnel their followers to their YouTube channels, where they would discuss the conspiracy theories they helped to manufacture.

They did not limit the coordination to the MeWe group. The trio also used a private WhatsApp group chat to strategize and discuss tactics they would employ on Twitter and other social media platforms.

The trio's popularity grew among anti-Meghan hate accounts. In one instance, Murky Meg used her popularity to amplify a conspiracy theory she helped manufacture, which in turn, a royal expert ultimately then repeated on TV. Twitter eventually verified Murky Meg, giving her considerably more legitimacy.

Yankee Wally touted her public relationship with Samantha Markle and her popularity with anti-Meghan hate accounts to correspond with journalists and royal experts. Yankee Wally also spearheaded efforts to manipulate conversations on Twitter. In one YouTube video, Yankee Wally gave a tutorial on creating fake Twitter accounts. In another YouTube video, she demonstrated how to use a VPN (Virtual Private Network) to make it appear they were users from another country.

Yankee Wally boasted about using multiple Twitter accounts and manipulating conversations on Twitter. In one circumstance, she inadvertently shared her search history in a YouTube video showing she was searching for a service to buy fake Twitter accounts in bulk. During the same video, she also inadvertently shared the email confirmation for her order. Using multiple accounts to manipulate conversations on Twitter is strictly prohibited, and Twitter has suspended over 19 accounts operated by Yankee Wally.

After repeated complaints and reports by Twitter users, Twitter also suspended Murky Meg's verified account in September 2021. Murky Meg was the second hate account of the trio to be suspended by Twitter.

According 2taz's Twitter account is still active, although Twitter's reporting system has acknowledged she has violated its rules on multiple occasions, including for abuse and harassment.

Platform manipulation didn't end with Twitter. Yankee Wally showed her YouTube viewers how to make negative Amazon book reviews appear at the top. She also admitted she left a negative book review about Meghan Markle's book without actually reading the book. Yankee Wally even instructed her viewers to use a VPN (Virtual Private Network) so that they could abuse the Archewell.com website.

Yankee Wally is just one example of many single-purpose hate accounts, and there are dozens of others, including YouTube channels, that violate both platforms' rules. Yankee Wally isn't the exception to the rule; she is the rule.

After we published our first report, Twitter initially suspended 11 single-purpose hate accounts. In the following weeks, Twitter suspended an additional 13 accounts. Twitter also determined other single-purpose hate accounts were breaking their rules against abuse and harassment, but Twitter didn't permanently suspend the accounts.

The single-purpose hate accounts that Twitter permanently suspended created new accounts and continued their abuse and harassment. Twitter's limited enforcement of its rules appeared to embolden the most toxic hate accounts. On more than one occasion, previously suspended hate accounts openly mocked Twitter and bragged about "always coming back" after being permanently suspended.

We observed hate accounts coordinating and blatantly harassing journalists who covered our first two reports. And although the accounts did indeed break Twitter's rules for abuse and harassment, approximately 120 single-purpose hate accounts that Twitter previously suspended, temporarily locked for abuse and harassment, or are currently violating Twitter's rules remain active.

Based on the data and extensive evidence we collected, our research has revealed a sustained coordinated campaign to defame Harry and Meghan, and tarnish their brand. The campaign spans several social media platforms across multiple continents, and the key participants are predominantly Caucasian women between the ages of 38 and 65.

Racism and YouTube ad revenue are the primary motivators of the core group. Subgroups are driven primarily by their hatred of Meghan Markle, taking their cues from the core group. The bizarre and nonsensical conspiracy theories they believe are reminiscent of QAnon, but the hate and vitriol they spread would classify them as a hate group.

THE TRIO

Yankee Wally is a 65-year-old Caucasian woman from the United Kingdom, and other hate accounts credit her with being one of the founders of the anti-Meghan hate group. Yankee boasts about her years of running brothels and causing mischief, and she is open about her current online career attacking Meghan Markle.

Yankee Wally is friends with According 2taz and Murky Meg, and like Yankee Wally, they are also Caucasian women from the United Kingdom who have made an online career out of attacking Meghan Markle. The three women have discussed their friendship openly in their YouTube videos and on other social media platforms. Since 2018, the trio have used their Twitter accounts and YouTube channels to attack, smear, and spread mis/disinformation about Harry and Meghan, Duke and Duchess of Sussex.

In 2019, the trio signed a petition requesting the Brighton & Hove Council reject the usage of the titles "Duke of Sussex" and "Duchess of Sussex" by Harry and Meghan. They claimed such titles were entirely non-democratic and symbolic of the oppression of the general public by the wealthy elite. The petition received fewer than 4000 signatures, and it failed. The petition is one of many examples of the women working together against Harry and Meghan.

THE TRIO'S FRIENDSHIP

According 2taz and Yankee Wally credit Murky Meg for helping them start their YouTube channels, and According 2taz tweeted several times about her friendship with Murky Meg. The three women remained friends until September 2021, when Twitter suspended Murky Meg. According 2taz and Murky Meg stopped talking to one another, putting Yankee Wally in the middle of an ongoing dispute between the two of her friends.

ACCORDING 2TAZ ON ZDF

On Remembrance Sunday, According 2taz tweeted about a camerawoman who stopped her and asked According 2taz about her thoughts on the Queen missing Remembrance Sunday. According 2taz claims the woman asked her what she did for a job, and she joked she might end up on the cutting room floor if they looked her up. According 2taz essentially acknowledged what she does online could be problematic enough for her not to be included when the segment aired. ZDF did air According 2taz's interview, and then they released a statement after someone complained about ZDF giving According 2taz airtime.

FROM CROCHETER TO MURKY MEG

Before becoming known as one of the most notorious anti-Meghan hate accounts, Murky Meg was known for her crocheting skills and KizWiz Crochet brand. In 2018, SNIZL wrote about Murky Meg's crochet water balloons and the future of her brand. Murky Meg also had a YouTube channel that showed people how to crochet, but it wasn't nearly as popular as her current anti-Meghan endeavor.

Local Leicester Mum creates a fun way to cool down this summer

By Snizl 25th July 2018 No Comments

It's fairly safe to say that we are smack bang in the middle of a heat-wave and so of course, everyone is desperate for a way to cool down. Look no further than these innovative crochet water balloons. With the potential to create hours of summer fun for the kids (and the adults too), these water balloons are completely reusable, making them environmentally and economically friendly too.

<https://www.facebook.com/kizwizcrochet/videos/270998256813265/>

Kiz Laird-Conolly from Leicester, started KizWiz Crochet due to her love of crocheting. Having taught herself the art about 4 years ago, Kiz was initially crocheting for family (blankets and hats etc) until her husband pointed out that she was too good to be giving away her creations for nothing. And so KizWiz Crochet was born.

A year on and everyone is loving Kiz's designs. The most popular pieces are the recycled t-shirt bath mats (very on trend), the amiguri animals and of course, the crochet water balloons.

When asked where Kiz hoped her business would go in the future, she replied

"Next step is I'm hoping to develop my brand enough to start designing patterns and selling them!"

You can find Kiz and shop her product range on Snizl, Facebook and Etsy.

If you want to get involved and have fun with your very own set of crochet water balloons, be sure to enter our Snizl competition.

THE FORMER MADAM

Yankee Wally is candid about her former life as a brothel madam. Yankee Wally is also outspoken about her run-ins with the law. In 2005, the South Wales Echo published an article about Yankee Wally pointing an air pistol at a terrified 23-year-old student. Yankee Wally pleaded guilty to possessing a firearm with intent to cause fear of violence, and the judge sentenced Yankee Wally to four months in jail.

A brothel madam pulled a gun on a man during a row over a car parking space.

Sadie Quinlan, 49, of Churchill Way, Cardiff, was jailed after she pointed the air pistol at the 23-year-old student in a city car park. CAR PARK ROW BROTHEL MADAMIN AIR PISTOL THREAT: A brothel madam was jailed after threatening a student with a gun in a row over a car parking space.

Sadie Quinlan, 49, pointed the air pistol at terrified 23-year-old student Patrick Phillips when she lost her temper in a car park beneath the Landmark Place apartment block on Churchill Way in Cardiff city centre, where they both lived.

Judge John Griffith-Williams QC sentenced the married mother of one to four months in jail at Cardiff Crown Court yesterday after she pleaded guilty to possessing a firearm with intent to cause fear of violence.

Suzanne Thomas, prosecuting, told the court Quinlan sat in her Audi TT, blocking Mr Phillips from accessing a ramp in his car.

She said: 'The defendant said to Mr Phillips 'you don't have a key and you are stealing car parking spaces'.

'Mr Phillips showed her his key fob but she said they weren't real. He replied that he was entitled to use the car park and then he saw she had a gun in her hand. He panicked and threw his keys on the floor.'

Quinlan told him that she had bought the pistol from a sale, adding 'but it scared you didn't it?', the court was told.

Mr Phillips managed to get a car parking space but realised he needed to get out of the car to get his keys back, and saw Quinlan with the gun still resting on her lap.

Police searched Quinlan's flat after Mr Phillips reported her, where they found the pistol underneath a pillow in her bedroom, four gas cartridges and two packs of pellets.

Ex-wages clerk Quinlan told police she had bought the pistol for pounds 40 as a 'frightener' to use as protection because of difficulties she was having with her brothel business.

Judge Griffith-Williams told Quinlan as she wept in the dock: 'You were prepared to buy the firearm and have demonstrated to me you lack the good sense and judgement to behave responsibly.

'We live in a day and age when terror is all too much part of a person's daily life and the use of firearms is such a grave matter that there must be a deterrent.' Business paid for private education: Jon Holmes, defending, told the court Quinlan bought the brothel business in 1998 to fund her 21-year-old daughter's education at the private school Haberdashers' Monmouth School for Girls and university studies.

Mr Holmes said: 'It all boiled down to a misunderstanding over a parking place.

'Her perception was that in her state of acute stress that the complainant was following her. She accepts that she overreacted.'

MEWE GROUP

Yankee Wally, aka @GiftedWelsh aka @ShylocksSister, co-founded the private anti-Meghan MeWe group to share information and photos that group members could disseminate on other social media platforms. The group members fabricated much of the information and altered many of the photos. The MeWe group was akin to a Meghan Markle disinformation repository. From the MeWe group, the falsehoods and memes spread to Twitter and then to other social media platforms.

Proof, if proof were needed, that Prince Harry really has become the kind of fellow who would sue his own grandmother.

COOPERATIVE YOUTUBE CHANNEL

In the early days of Yankee Wally's YouTube channel, she posted a community comment telling her followers she was monetizing her YouTube channel but was not allowed to make money. Yankee Wally also said that she would give back any money she earned to her viewers in the form of Amazon gift cards after purchasing a laptop. Yankee Wally claimed her YouTube channel would become cooperative.

We couldn't find any evidence of Yankee Wally sharing her YouTube earnings or giving her viewers Amazon gift cards. In fact, Yankee Wally continued to accept donations while earning thousands of dollars each month.

Yankee Wally 2 years ago (edited)

Evening Folks! I know I'm late today with this video and I apologise profusely. Anyway its uploaded now but it will take 2 hours to appear. As you've probably noticed I've monetized my channel. I dont know if it will make any money, I'm no good with figures but if I can afford a laptop I'll be happy. If I make any more, I'll be passing it back to you via Amazon gift cards because I'm REALLY REALLY NOT ALLOWED TO MAKE ANY MONEY! it's a long story but I'm unable to accept money and anyway I don't need it! I'm extremely well fed! With absolutely everything I need! I could eat lobster every day if I wanted! But I prefer Heinz Beans on Toast. So this channel will become a cooperative! Like a big happy family. And any money made (after the laptop pls?) is for YOU. Love Wally yankeewally@ [redacted].

THANKING YOUTUBE

In a YouTube community post, Yankee Wally thanked YouTube for supporting anti-Meghan hate channels, and then she encouraged other creators to continue publishing anti-Meghan content.

 Yankee Wally 3 months ago

Halloooo and a very good morning to you all.
Those of you that know me, probably noticed I was a bit nervous and quieter last night? Truth is I was really scared of saying something that could get me banned, knowing how HARD the sussexsquad are trying to take us all down.
It really affects us all. Being scared of saying the wrong thing definitely affects the spontaneity. But THANK YOU @YouTube you have obviously supported those of us that must be getting reported maybe 100 times a day? I'd like to thank YouTube for sticking by those of us who create content, and who cannot stand the Sussexes or the sussexsquad.....we wish them NO I'll will, but we just see through them.
So hopefully all the gang who makes videos especially murky Meg, Taz, Sue, Bookworm, Pdina etc etc will take heart from the fact my video has stayed up for 12 hours now and is getting normal amount of views.
Let's CARRY ON GIRLS!
#freespeech and God Bless @YouTube for standing by us all.

I'll be back later. Still with my dreadful lisp(!) But back to my usual antics!

Love you all and thank you...every single one of you. For reading this and supporting the Monarchy except the disgraceful Sussexes

YOUTUBE DEPENDENCY

On multiple occasions, According 2taz tweeted her displeasure with YouTube demonetizing her videos, and she made it clear the ability to pay her bills depended on her YouTube ad earnings. According 2taz also stated she would have to give up creating videos if YouTube continued demonetizing her videos.

So pissed off Youtube still have my NO NO NO video blocked from me earning money. I've been in touch several times in 24hrs & they R saying under investigation !

This is the 3rd time this week!! I cant afford 4 this 2 happen & if it continues I'll have 2 give it up! WTF YouTube?

Replying to @May21222 and @markhyd27738570

Yes well unless your bills are dependant on your YouTube income I understand why you don't get it. But don't make a swipe at me and generalise me with others. I only trash Meghan when it's due!

OMG! Youtube have blocked my latest videos regardless the subject from earning revenue! Y? Why am I hearing all the time that thousands of successful Youtubers R being stopped from earning from advert revenue? Even some guy that talks about SPIDERS!!!

Well @ytcreators @YouTube no one will respond to my feedback forms or emails for help. I feel utterly deflated. A lot of time & effort, editing, goes into my videos and now I'm reading comments that I'm demonetised because I'm not good enough.

YOUTUBE HARASSMENT POLICY

YouTube's policy on harassment and cyberbullying prohibits accounts dedicated entirely to focusing on maliciously insulting an identifiable individual. YouTube also prohibits extreme insults to dehumanize individuals based on their intrinsic attributes. Each of the channels listed in this report violates YouTube's harassment and cyberbullying policies.

Examples

Here are some examples of content that's not allowed on YouTube:

- Repeatedly showing pictures of someone and then making statements like "Look at this creature's teeth, they're so disgusting!", with similar commentary targeting intrinsic attributes throughout the video.
- Targeting an individual based on their membership in a protected group, such as by saying: "Look at this filthy [slur targeting a protected group], I wish they'd just get hit by a truck."
- Targeting an individual and making claims they are involved in human trafficking in the context of a harmful conspiracy theory where the conspiracy is linked to direct threats or violent acts.
- Using an extreme insult to dehumanize an individual based on their intrinsic attributes. For example: "Look at this dog of a woman! She's not even a human being — she must be some sort of mutant or animal!"
- Depicting an identifiable individual being murdered, seriously injured, or engaged in a graphic sexual act without their consent.
- Accounts dedicated entirely to focusing on maliciously insulting an identifiable individual.

More Examples ^

- Targeting an individual based on their intrinsic attributes to wish for their death or serious injury, for example "I wish someone would just bring a hammer down on that [Member of a Protected Group's] face."
- Threatening someone's physical safety. This includes implied threats like "when I see you next, things will end badly for you." It also includes explicit threats like "when I see you on Saturday I'm going to punch you in the face." Threatening or implying violence by saying things such as, "You better watch out" while brandishing a weapon is also an example.
- Posting an individual's nonpublic personal identifying information like a phone number, home address, or email to direct abusive attention or traffic toward them. For example: "I got a hold of their phone number, keep on calling and leaving messages until they pick up!"
- "Raiding" or directing malicious abuse to identifiable individuals through in-game voice chat or messages during a stream.
- Directing users toward a YouTuber's comment section for malicious abuse. For example: "everyone needs to go over to this individual's channel right now and just go crazy, let them know how much we want them to die."
- "Swatting" or other prank calls to emergency or crisis response services, or encouraging viewers to act in this or any other harassing behavior.
- Stalking or attempting to blackmail users.
- Zooming in or prolonged focused or emphasis on the breasts, buttocks or genital area of an identifiable individual for the purposes of degrading, objectifying, or sexualizing.
- Video game content which has been developed or modified ("modded") to promote violence or hatred against an individual with the attributes noted above.

Remember these are just some examples, and don't post content if you think it might violate this policy.

TWITTER ABUSE AND HARASSMENT

Four of the most active single-purpose hate accounts have received warnings from Twitter for abuse and harassment, but the accounts remain active. Twitter has acknowledged these accounts are abusive to others and engage in targeted harassment, and even after the warnings, they continue their abuse and targeted harassment.

SOLICITING INFORMATION

Soliciting sensitive information about Harry and Meghan was a red line the group had no problem crossing. People would respond with the requested information with no concern for the couple's safety. Often, the posted information would include unredacted mailing addresses and other information that someone could use to target the couple. The reckless solicitation of information was brazen and done out in the open without fear of suspension or reprisal.

EVADING TWITTER SUSPENSION

Evading suspension has become a skill for many of the single-purpose hate accounts. They create multiple accounts, and when Twitter suspends one of their accounts, they use a VPN to hide their IP address and use one of their alternate accounts. Many quickly regain their followers, returning to business as usual. For example, Twitter suspended @Pantalaimonsil1 aka @DukePantalaimon twice, and the account is back as @LORD_Belacqua (Twitter ID:1467174202205777925) and is still engaging in targeted harassment. Medium.com suspended @DukePantalaimon for violating its rules two hours after being notified of his violations. Twitter has yet to suspend @LORD_Belacqua although the account is evading the previous two suspensions, and continues to break Twitter's rules. In a recent video, Yankee Wally advocated for @DukePantalaimon aka @LORD_Belacqua, and said he is a vital member of their group.

He does know that everyone who has got suspended has come back right?

He just doesn't know who they are.

We always come back.

MIS/DISINFORMATION EXAMPLES

Spreading mis/disinformation is the primary objective of the core group. Disseminating falsehoods about Meghan Markle is routine, and it is how the core group of bad actors is able to monetize their YouTube channels. Spreading conspiracy theories about Meghan Markle never being pregnant was commonplace and widely accepted by single-purpose hate accounts.

She never should have used those larger moonbump. She was too skinny pre pregnancy and considering Archie was 8lbs she should've stopped at this size for her 'full term' look IMO mother, this manipulation is really sad. Went through 3 or 4 photos. They weren't captured: they were manufactured. Don't think this bodes well for Archies lawsuit. Makes me questions Meghan's ability as a mother. Very sad. Will send others so you can pick apart the layers of photo

This was so funny as it slipped right up under her boobs 😂😂 how to fake it badly

MIS/DISINFORMATION FLOWCHART

The key participants fabricated falsehoods off-platform but used Twitter as a staging ground to launch their attacks and spread conspiracy theories about Harry and Meghan. Other single-purpose hate accounts repackaged and repeated the falsehoods on Twitter and other social media platforms. Once the conspiracy theories and disinformation they fabricated spread, they then produced YouTube videos about the topic and monetized their conspiracy theories. Twitter is central to the flow of conspiracy theories and mis/disinformation, and without Twitter, their reach and ability to spread falsehoods is greatly diminished.

ABUSIVE TWEETS

Hate accounts didn't care about breaking Twitter's rules. Attacking Meghan Markle was commonplace, and there was no line hate accounts wouldn't cross.

MIGRATION TO GETTR

While we were compiling this report, Yankee Wally and other single-purpose hate accounts decided they would take their hate group to GETTR in case Twitter began suspending accounts en masse. Yankee Wally instructed her viewers to create a GETTR account in a YouTube community post, and she also published a video on how to install and use the GETTR app.

 Yankee Wally 9 days ago

Hello everyone! I wanted to ask ALL of you to download the app called GETTR everyone on Twitter is now moving over or at least opening an account there to get away from relentless persecution, doxxing and harassment by "sussexsquad" and their "Head Honcho", Bouzy. Taz and myself are already there! If twitter suspends you, then Gettr will be ready to go! And Gab is also an option. Heres a link to gettr

We were able to establish that Meghan Markle is the target of an ongoing hate and disinformation campaign organized by a group of predominantly Caucasian women. The group fabricated and disseminated false narratives and altered photos of Meghan Markle on Twitter and other social media platforms.

Group members operated multiple Twitter accounts and used the accounts to manipulate conversations on Twitter and target journalists who wrote favorable articles about Harry and Meghan. They coordinated their attacks, attempting to discredit anyone they felt contradicted their narrative about the couple. Hate accounts would often interact with and align themselves with royal commentators who were inclined to help them amplify their false narratives.

The anti-Meghan group is proficient at evading suspensions, and they openly mock Twitter about returning shortly after losing an account. Their sheer ability to circumvent Twitter's security measures and operate new hate accounts makes mitigating the group's mis/disinformation and targeted harassment challenging.

Their ability to churn out and disseminate falsehoods is matched only by their ability to use YouTube to monetize the conspiracy theories and falsehoods they regurgitate on social media platforms. They have no incentive to stop, and to the contrary, YouTube incentivizes them to continue producing their hate-filled content that fuels the cycle of harassment and hatred.

It is concerning that a hate group with little technical expertise could easily manipulate conversations on Twitter for over three years and push into the mainstream media the false narratives they fabricated, which went virtually unchallenged by anyone. The hate group was not hiding its activities and was operating in plain sight and continued to operate as journalists and researchers monitored those activities after we published our first report.

We believe several hate accounts pose a credible threat to Harry and Meghan, Duke and Duchess of Sussex. Yankee Wally made explicit threats to Meghan Markle, and she has a criminal record and history of violence. Yankee Wally has over 42 thousand YouTube subscribers, many of whom live in the United Kingdom and the United States. Even if Yankee Wally herself doesn't act on her threats, her incendiary rhetoric creates a dangerous environment that could very well encourage someone else to carry out an attack on Meghan Markle and/or members of her family.

CONCLUSION - CONT.

Unless Twitter bans single-purpose hate accounts explicitly created to target specific individuals and becomes more proactive at suspending their new accounts, unfortunately, these hate groups will continue to thrive on Twitter and use the platform as a staging ground to spread their hatred. If YouTube doesn't stop monetizing problematic channels and flat out prohibit the videos, there is no incentive for the core group to stop fabricating and disseminating false narratives.

Additionally, without new policies to address single-purpose hate accounts and problematic YouTube channels, we could very well see an escalation in incendiary rhetoric that will lead to violence, as we have seen with QAnon, White Supremacists, and other similar hate groups.

If Twitter and YouTube only enforced their current rules and policies regarding abuse, harassment, and hateful content, it would be a significant improvement from what we are presently witnessing on both platforms.
